March 27th, 2020 - Louis VIII, also known as Louis the Lion, born on September 1187 and reigned as King of France from 1223 to 1226. He was a member of the Capetian dynasty, born in Paris, France, to Philip II Augustus and Isabelle of Hainaut. He was also Count of Artois from 1190, inheriting the county from his mother. His father's name was Louis VIII. Louis VIII married Blanche of Castile and they had five surviving children.

Louis VIII invaded England in 1216, attempting to seize the English throne. He was successful until King John of England and the barons supported Henry III of England. He died from dysentery in 1226.
May 4th, 2020 - Louis VIII also known as Louis the Lion or the Lion Heart was the king of France between 1223 and 1226. He was the son of Isabelle of Hainaut who formerly ruled the County of Artois as a countess. Hainaut passed her inheritance to her son Louis VIII who later became the count of Artois. His father was King Philip II of France.
